

We Survived

We got a lot of wind late last week but no significant damage to boats or structures in the area. There have been big seas running for the last few days with up to 12m measured at the ECAN wave bouy 17km East of LeBons Bay

Trailer Yacht Clinic

We're planning to repeat our popular clinic for newer, less experienced Trailer Yacht owners and crews.

Starting at 9am, experienced trailer yachties will take participants through a wide range topics of interest to newer members. In the afternoon, weather permitting, we'll take some boats out on the water and look at sails, rigs and what makes them go.

We have a lot of class specific expertise as well as basic boat setup and handling knowledge available.

If you are new to the sport or just looking to brush up your basic skills, this is the event for you. Bring your boat and crew. The event will be on regardless of weather conditions.
