

A WEEKEND FOR THE PADDLERS

A good turnout for Te Waka Pounamu's final marathon event last Saturday. All three waka marathon days over the last few weeks were blessed with almost perfect conditions.

Winter racing for the sailors is on again this Sunday. The weather forecast looks promising with a light Southerly. Join us for a pleasant afternoon sail in a similar format to the popular twilight series. The race will stop at 3pm to allow everyone to gather in the Wardroom (the fire will be on) for the after match function and prizegiving. A good selection of food will be available.

The Dinghy and Keelboat prize givings for last season will held after the last race of the Winter series. In this edition , we've published the Dinghy prize winners. The keelboat and trailer yacht Club prizewinners will be published next week.
